DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

With respect to the transferring step of the claims, it is not clear which components of the integrated computer network receive the service directory data and the configuration data. It is not clear which device provides the service directory data and the configuration data. Merely establishing a communication link with the customer's network is not sufficient.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over House (USP 6,785,805) in view of Cline (USP 7,136,908).

Details of the rejections have already been set forth in the last Office action. The details are incorporated herein by reference thereto.

Argument

In the communication filed on 7/20/2007, Applicants do not disagree that House teaches an online build-to-order system. Applicants also admit that House teaches online configuration of test, automation and measured systems (last line page 8 of the response). Applicants appear to contend that House is for building test, automation and measured systems and not for building network. Note that Applicants' claimed method is not for building a computer network. Rather, Applicants' claimed method is for accepting, filling and shipping an order to a customer who orders the merchandise online. None of the recited steps are related to build a computer network. The gist of the invention is to load configuration data to the merchandise before it is shipped to the customer so that the customer does not have to do it. As admitted by Applicants, House also teaches configuring merchandise before it is shipped. As set forth in the last Office action, Cline is cited for the teaching of configuring a network by transferring a service directory from one network to the network. If House's new system were to replace the customer's old network, it would have been notoriously obvious to retrieve all the configuration data including service directory and transfer the configuration data from the old system to the new system.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
